The award is by OTHM of U.K. OTHM is a large, globally represented, qualification awarding organization regulated by the Office of the Qualifications and Examinations Regulation (Ofqual). Ofqual is responsible for maintaining standards and confidence in qualifications.

Ofqual looks after GCSEs and A levels in England, and a wide range of vocational qualifications in England. Ofqual also regulates the National Curriculum Assessments in England. OTHM is a full member of the Federation of Awarding Bodies (FAB).

FAB is the trade association for vocational awarding bodies in the UK which represents the interests of over 110 awarding bodies by liaising with key stakeholders, including the regulators, government departments and funding agencies.

OTHM qualifications are recognised globally. The local and international recognition has enabled OTHM graduates to enhance their employability skills as well as allowing them to join degree and/or Master top-up programmes.

OTHM qualifications are developed to equip learners with the knowledge and skills that employers are looking for. Pursuing an OTHM qualification will give the opportunity to enhance knowledge of business and management and grow key competencies to tackle work projects and situations more effectively.

This in turn gives the potential to get promotion within workplace. It also allows to progress onto a Bachelor degree / Master degree / MBA top-up programmes around the World. OTHM diplomas and higher diplomas are recognized locally by the Tertiary and Vocational Education Commission (TVEC) in Sri Lanka and internationally by the Ofqual regulated awarding body, OTHM, UK. Similarly, OTHM degree programmes are recognized by the University Grants Commission (UGC) in Sri Lanka.
